

THE CREDIT REVIEW REPORT ON PROTECTED DISCLOSURES 2023

Credit Review has put in place policy and procedures for the making of Protected Disclosures, which have been developed in line with the Protected Disclosures Act, 2014 and the Protected Disclosures (Amendment) Act 2022 (the “Protected Disclosures Acts”). This sets out the process by which a 'worker' of Credit Review can make a protected disclosure, what will happen when a disclosure is made and what Credit Review will do to protect the discloser.

What is a protected disclosure?

A protected disclosure is defined in the Acts as a disclosure of information which, in the reasonable belief of the worker, tends to show one or more relevant wrongdoings, which came to the attention of the worker in connection with the worker's employment and is disclosed in the manner outlined in the Acts. This is sometimes referred to as "whistleblowing".

The Protected Disclosures Acts require public bodies to prepare and publish a report each year relating to the number of protected disclosures made to public bodies in the preceding year in addition to detailing the action taken in response to the disclosures made. Reports are required to be issued no later than 30 June.

Credit Review received 0 protected disclosures during the reporting period 1st January 2023 to 31st December 2023.

